Hub Solution Designs Announces Signing of Representation Agreement with D&B

BOSTON, 17-NOVEMBER-2008: Hub Solution Designs, a management and technology consulting firm that specializes in Master Data Management and Data Governance, announced today that it has signed a non-exclusive representation agreement with D&B.

Dan Power, founder & president of Hub Solution Designs, noted "Our clients typically include D&B in their Master Data Management and Data Governance initiatives, due to the accurate, complete, timely and consistent information that D&B provides."

"This representation agreement will allow us to license D&B information to our clients as part of their MDM initiatives, and will benefit our clients by allowing our consultants to more tightly integrate D&B information with our clients' MDM platforms."
