THE SECRET TO GREAT PARENTING

My wife and I have been parents for fourteen months now. We are no where even close to being great parents but we both were raised by great parents.

I grew up in a Christian home with a mom and dad but that is not what made my parents great parents. We weren't a family that faithfully had family devotions. (Even though I wish we did looking back.) It wasn't that they were great parents because my dad pastored and my mom home schooled us. Let me be transparent; our home was not exactly the "Clever's from Leave it to Beaver." There were nine of us in a four bedroom house with two bathrooms. Just those conditions alone could be considered as a trial by fire!

Then there is my wife's family. They lived in the Philippines till she was fourteen. Mrs. Irmeler lived most of her childhood with an unsaved dad, surrounded by the wrong kind of influences, and a mom who worked full time! She had one older sister who had many health problems so she took care of her older sister and two younger brothers.

You're probably wondering, how all this makes great parents; because in many ways I'm sure you can relate in one way or another to our parents. Ok, here it is; our parents are great because they didn't give up!

They didn't give up on their marriage, they didn't give up on their Saviour, and they didn't give up on (us) their children. The Bible says in I Cor. 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the if the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in van in the Lord. Don't give up my friend!

Teen L.I.F.E. Fundraiser

Coming up in the month of October the Youth Ministry will be having a competition between the guys and the girls to see which side can raise the most money in the month of October. Each Wednesday, there is going to be a special offering to help pay for an air hockey table and some other things for the youth room of Liberty Baptist Church. We would love to have as many parents support as possible. The first of five offerings will begin October 5th, 2011. We'll be sending more reminders out in the coming weeks.
