SECONDARY EDUCATION MAJOR – 128 HOURS
ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

This course of study looks to instill the proper Biblical philosophy of Christian education while equipping students with a general understanding of children's learning skills, effective methods of teaching and classroom management skills. Students who wish to enter this course of study must name their proficiency while enrolling for the fall semester of their sophomore year. Through weekly practical classes students will have the opportunity to exercise their skills and knowledge in a classroom setting. In addition, students will learn their role in the local church ministry, the importance of a daily walk with God and the joy of being a soulwinner.
