

Partners in Pediatrics, LLC

Partners with parents for the health of their children

Partners in Pediatrics announce the opening of our website.

The address is

www.mykidsdr.com

Please visit our new website for important information about our practice and helpful links for the health of your child. Be sure to join our email list where you will receive special announcements about news and events occurring within the practice.