On August 5, 2011 at 546pm an armed robbery occurred at the Circle K store at 9913 SR43 in Streetsboro. Both Wadsworth Police Dept and Cuyahoga Falls Police Dept have been investigating similar robberies in their cities where the store surveillance photos showed the suspect in all three robberies appeared to be the same person. After a joint investigation between the three agencies a suspect was identified as Jason W Douglas, 23, of Hudson OH. The Streetsboro Police Department then obtained a warrant for Douglas and today, the Northern Ohio Violent Fugitive Task Force headed up by the US Marshals Service, located Mr. Douglas at his home in Hudson and arrested him without incident. He was turned over to the Streetsboro Police Department where he was processed and taken to the Portage County Jail awaiting arraignment.

Attached is a photo from the Streetsboro Circle K surveillance camera during the robbery and the booking photo of Douglas from today.
