

Criteria For Submission

Each Teacher can submit dancers names from their school who have shown dedication to the art of dance. The student being submitted

- Must be a graduate or will be graduating from high school in June 2012
- Has been inspired by dance
- Will continue to include dance in their lives either through secondary education or master classes and/or conventions.

Students must submit a short essay on how dance has impacted or changed their lives. Student essay must be sent with the schools entry form. The essay must be approximately 150 to 200 words entitled How dance has impacted or changed my life. Essays should be typed, double spaced, and include the student's name, dance school and name of dance teacher.

Points will be deducted for spelling and grammatical errors, but the main focus of the evaluation will be on content. If selected as the winner, student agrees to allow the essay to be read at the Odyssey.
